Who to meet

This meeting will bring together representatives from different European countries, covering the following profiles:

- European education policy makers
- National Policy makers for sustainability
- Advisory board of the STEAM+ project

Why come

Policy makers are vital actors in the necessary transformation of our society to achieve long-term sustainability. European Education Policy Makers will learn about the European STEAM+ project, an Erasmus+ project on transdisciplinary education as a driver for change. STEAM+ wishes to exchange ideas on the opportunities and challenges for policy makers and higher education institutions. We need fruitful cooperation at European level to improve and strengthen policy for transdisciplinary education. The program includes a student-led transdisciplinary exercise applying the STEAM+ approach and a live interview between two pioneers in transdisciplinary education.

While coming to Leuven, you can join the inspiring three-day Higher education summit in Hasselt, organised by the Copernicus Alliance. STEAM+ invites you to their network session at the summit, Tuesday afternoon September 6 (<https://www.higher-education-summit.com/>). Hasselt is one hour by train from Leuven, ideal to combine both meetings.
